Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a total term of Two (2) years as to Count One of the Information. The defendant shall comply with the following special conditions:

1. Within 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons, the defendant shall report in person to his supervising probation officer in the district to which the defendant has been released.

3. The defendant shall not possess any firearms or other dangerous weapons.
4. Pursuant to the Violent Crime Control and Law Enforcement Act of 1996, the defendant shall not illegally possess or unlawfully use any controlled substance. The Court finds there is a low risk of future substance abuse by the defendant and therefore suspends the drug testing requirements.
5. The defendant must reside at a residence approved by his supervising probation officer.
6. The defendant shall use his best efforts to secure lawful full-time employment and support his dependents.
7. The defendant shall notify his supervising probation officer at least ten days prior to any change in the place of his residence or employment. When such notification is not possible, the defendant shall notify his supervising probation officer within 72 hours of the change.
8. The defendant shall notify his supervising probation officer within 72 hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer.
9. The defendant shall follow the reasonable instructions of his supervising probation officer and answer all inquiries of such officer subject to the defendant's Fifth Amendment right against self-incrimination.
10. The defendant shall permit his supervising probation officer to visit him at reasonable times at home, or such other location as may be mutually agreed upon and shall permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by his supervising probation officer.

Case Number: 18-CR-135

14. The defendant shall submit his person, property, residence, office, and/or any electronic communication or data storage device, including a computer as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1), to a search conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner by his supervising probation officer. Failure to submit to a search may constitute grounds for revocation of the defendant's term of supervised release. The defendant shall notify any other occupants that the premises may be subject to a search pursuant to this condition. Any search may be conducted only when reasonable suspicion exists that the defendant has violated the conditions of his supervised release and that the areas to be searched may contain evidence of such violation(s).
15. The defendant shall cooperate with Immigration and Customs Enforcement under the direction of his supervising probation officer.

In accordance with the recent decisions by the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit in United States v. Siegel, 753 F.3d 705 (7th Cir. 2014), United States v. Thompson, 777 F.3d 368 (7th Cir. 2015), United States v. Kappes, 782 F.3d 828 (7th Cir. 2015), United States v. Downs, 784 F.3d 1180 (7th Cir. 2015), United States v. Poulin, 809 F.3d 924 (7th Cir. 2016), United States v. Ortiz, 817 F.3d 1180 (7th Cir. 2016), *United States v. The Court concluded that such additional conditions, if any, are best left for further consideration at such time as the defendant may become eligible for release from the custodial portion of the Court's sentence.

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

The defendant shall pay the following total criminal monetary penalties in accordance with the schedule of payments set forth on Sheet 6.

	Special Assessment	Fine	Restitution
Totals:	$100.00	None	None

FINE

Based upon the defendant's limited financial resources, the Court determines that the defendant does not have the financial ability to pay a fine within the guidelines range. The Court determines that the defendant does not have the financial ability to pay the interest on the fine, costs of incarceration, costs of community confinement, and supervision, and therefore waives the interest on the fine, costs of incarceration, costs of community confinement, and supervision in this case.

A waiver of the cost of community confinement does not preclude the Bureau of Prisons from imposing a subsistence fee of up to twenty-five percent (25%) of gross income, based on ability to pay, for any portion of the sentence spent in a community correctional facility.

RESTITUTION

The defendant shall pay restitution in the amount listed below. Restitution payments shall be made to the Clerk of the Court—362 U.S. Courthouse, 517 E. Wisconsin Avenue, Milwaukee, Wisconsin 53202—who shall disburse restitution payments to the following payee(s):

Unless the Court has expressly ordered otherwise in the special instructions above, if this judgment imposes a period of imprisonment, payment of the criminal monetary penalties shall be due during the period of imprisonment. All criminal monetary penalty payments, except those payments made through the Bureau of Prisons Inmate Financial Responsibility Program are to be made as directed by the Court, the defendant's supervising probation officer, or the United States Attorney.
